ST. PETER'S HIKING CLUB

Our pastor Father Beres loves a good walk and we are within minutes of 500 miles of trails in the beautiful Shenandoah National Park. On periodic Thursdays (based on Father's schedule) we will convene at 8:30 a.m. at the church for a five-to-seven mile mountain hike with elevation gains of up to 1,000 feet. Re-hydration and lunch will occur at a local pub.

If you are in solid physical condition and can handle the intended hiking distances without fatigue, please email John Hagarty at jfhagarty@aol.com who will coordinate and lead the hikes. The only equipment you'll need is a sturdy pair of hiking boots, day pack, and ideally a pair of hiking poles. John will create a list for future hike announcements.

PASTOR'S PIECE

Dear Folks,

As you know, on the Monday, Wednesday, and Friday I do two Masses, but I'm only allowed to take one intention a day. I've been offering that second Mass for deceased priests of the diocese, but I would like to start offering them for the people of the parish. Please be sure that you are registered so that I don't miss you.

God bless you all!

-Fr. Beres
