We have spoken with the contractor and we will begin construction on April 18th, the Monday after Easter. This means that we will begin to use the Washington Firehall on April 24th. There will be some minor construction going on before that so please be careful but we will be in the church until April 18th. During the time of construction, all Masses from Monday through Saturday (including the Saturday 5 PM) will be in our own parish hall. The three Sunday Masses will be at the Washington Firehall. Please pray to Saint Joseph for the successful completion of our project. God bless!

Pastor's Piece

Dear Folks,

In the letter of Saint Paul for this Sunday we hear of the wonderful exchange that we are about to celebrate in the Passion and death of our Lord. Jesus is made to be sin even though He is without sin so that we might be made righteous. As Isaiah would write, by His wounds we were healed. On the one hand this makes us all the more sorrowful for our sins but also more filled with joy that we can have the justice of God in our hearts.

God Bless You in a Holy Lent!
