Mass Schedule in Light of TLM Suppression:

With the exception of the Tuesday morning Mass, which will become a private one, we will keep our current schedule past the date of Bishop Burbidge's suppression of the Traditional Latin Mass. This will be at least until November to see by the raw numbers which Mass times people desire most. If there is enough demand, I am pleased to spend myself for you in this way. As of September 8th, all TLMs during the weekdays will become English Novus Ordo Masses. The 9:45 AM Mass on Sunday will be, beginning September 11th, a Novus Ordo Mass all in Latin with the exception of the readings and homily, using all possible options to make it as close to the Traditional Latin Mass as possible.

Anniversary of Ordination

Fr Reinders will be celebrating 25 years of priesthood this August 15th. Please pray for his continued faithfulness in the priesthood of Jesus Christ!

Legion of Mary

"Every unbeliever is, as is every Catholic is, a being with an immortal spirit, made in the image of God, for whom Christ died. However, violently hostile to the Church or to Christ, he may be, our aim is to convert him, not simply defeat him. ...in so far as the Church's soldiers fight in hatred, they are fighting against Him." (F.J. Sheed).

This is from the Legion of Mary Handbook which gives us spiritual direction at every weekly meeting. You are invited to join us! For more information, contact J. Beattie at 540-987-8315 or jarbb474@gmail.com

Pastor's Piece

Dear Folks,

This coming Monday is the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a remembrance of the fact that when her earthly life was over she was taken into heaven by God both soul and body. She was given this unique privilege as a result of her constant yes to the will of God. It is of course most fitting that she who was the ark of God in that she carried Jesus in her womb should not undergo any corruption. We celebrate her great privilege and rejoice in that if we cooperate with God we too will rise again on the last day to glory.

God's Peace!
