Pastor's Piece

Dear Folks,

Our Lord delivers to us in this Sunday's Gospel what at first seems like a harsh teaching, namely, that mainly will try to reach salvation but will fail. This is certainly a call against a listless spirit and taking our entrance into heaven for granted. Michaelangelo captures this attitude very well in the painting of God reaching out to Adam with all His might while Adam simply puts out a very limp finger. We are blessed to have the sign in our midst that Saint Paul speaks of which is the Church and her sacraments, above all the Holy Eucharist. So, yes, our salvation is not assured but we have so much to rely on and count on that in the Church and the graces we receive through her we have great hope. May God grant you to enter into the narrow gate!

God's Peace!

-Fr. Beres
